The Constitutional Amendment

[illegible]

[illegible] William H Seward Secretary of State of the United States [illegible]

Whereas the Congress of the United States [illegible] of the sixteenth day June [illegible] the [illegible] a resolution which is in the words and figures following to wit:

JOINT RESOLUTION PROPOSING AN AMENDMENT TO THE CONSTITUTION OF THE UNITED STATES

Be it resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, two-thirds of both Houses concurring, that the following Article be proposed to the legislatures of the several States as an amendment to the Constitution of the United States which when ratified by three-fourths of said Legislatures shall be valid as part of the Constitution, namely:

Article 14. Section 1. All persons born or naturalized in the United States and subject to the jurisdiction thereof are citizens of the United States and of the State wherein they reside. No State shall make or enforce any law which shall abridge the privileges or immunities of citizens of the United States, nor shall any State deprive any person of life, liberty, or property without due process of law, nor deny to any person within its jurisdiction the equal protection of the laws.

Sec 2. Representatives shall be apportioned among the several States according to their respective numbers, counting the whole number of persons in each State, but when the right to vote at any election for the choice of electors for President and Vice President of the United States, Representatives in Congress, the Executive and Judicial officers of a State, or the members of the Legislature thereof is denied to any of the male inhabitants of such State (being twenty-one years of age and citizens of the United States) or in any way abridged except for participating in rebellion or other crime, the basis of representation therein shall be reduced in the proportion which the number of such male citizens shall bear to the whole number of male citizens twenty-one years of age in said State.

Sec 3. No person shall be a Senator or Representative in Congress, or elector of President or Vice President, or hold any office, civil or military, under the United States or under any State who having previously taken an oath as a member of Congress or as an officer of the United States, or as a member of any State Legislature or as an executive or judicial officer of any State to support the Constitution of the United States, shall have engaged in insurrection or rebellion against the same, or given aid and comfort to the enemies thereof; but Congress may, by a vote of two-thirds of each House remove such disability.

Sec 4. The validity of the public debt of the United States authorized by law, including debts incurred for payment of pensions and bounties for services in suppressing insurrection or rebellion shall not be questioned, but neither the United States nor any State shall assume or pay any debt or obligation incurred in aid of insurrection or rebellion against the United States, or any claim for the loss or emancipation of any slave, but all such debts, obligations and claims shall be held illegal and void.

Sec 5. The Congress shall have power to enforce by appropriate legislation the provisions of this article. SCHUYLER COLFAX
Speaker of the House of Representatives
LAFAYETTE S FOSTER
President of the Senate pro tempore
Attest EDWARD McPHERSON, Clerk of the House of Representatives
J W FORNEY Secretary of the Senate

And whereas, by the second section of the Act of Congress approved the 20th of April 1818, entitled "An act to provide for the publication of the laws of the United States and for other purposes" it is made the duty of the Secretary of State forthwith to cause any amendment to the Constitution of the United States which has been adopted according to the provisions of the said Constitution to be published in the newspapers authorized to promulgate the laws, with his certificate, specifying the States by which the same may have been adopted, and that the same has become valid to all intents and purposes as a part of the Constitution of the United States.

And whereas, neither the act just quoted from nor any other law expressly or by conclusive implication authorizes the Secretary of State to determine and decide doubtful questions as to the authenticity of the organization of State legislatures or as to the power of any State legislature to recall a previous act or resolution of ratification of any amendments proposed to the Constitution.

And, whereas, it appears from official documents on file in this department that the amendment to the Constitution of the United States proposed as aforesaid has been ratified by the Legislatures of the States of Connecticut, New Hampshire, Tennessee, New Jersey, Oregon, Vermont, New York, Ohio, Illinois, West Virginia, Kansas, Maine, Nevada, Missouri, Indiana, Minnesota, Rhode Island, Wisconsin, Pennsylvania, Michigan, Massachusetts, Nebraska and Iowa.

And whereas it further appears from documents on file in this department that the amendment to the Constitution of the United States proposed as aforesaid, has also been ratified by the newly constituted and newly established bodies avowing themselves to be and acting as the Legislatures respectively of the States of Arkansas, Florida, North Carolina, Louisiana, South Carolina and Alabama.

And whereas it further appears from official documents on file in this department that the Legislatures of two of the States first above enumerated to wit, Ohio and New Jersey, have since passed resolutions respectively withdrawing the consent of each of said States to the aforesaid amendment.

And, whereas, it is deemed a matter of doubt and uncertainty whether such resolutions are not irregular and invalid, and therefore ineffectual for withdrawing the consent of the said two States or either of them to the aforesaid amendment.

And whereas the whole number of States in the United States is thirty-seven, to wit: New Hampshire, Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Connecticut, New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Delaware, Maryland, Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Vermont, Kentucky, Tennessee, Ohio, Louisiana, Indiana, Mississippi, Illinois, Alabama, Maine, Missouri, Arkansas, Michigan, Florida, Texas, Iowa, Wisconsin, Minnesota, California, Oregon, Kansas, West Virginia, Nevada and Nebraska.

And, whereas, the twenty-three States first hereinbefore named whose Legislatures have ratified the said proposed amendment, and the six States next thereafter named having ratified the said proposed amendment by newly constituted and established legislative bodies, together constitute three-fourths of the whole number of States in the United States.

Now, therefore, be it known that I, William H. Seward, Secretary of State of the United States by virtue and in pursuance of the second section of the act of Congress approved the twentieth day of April eighteen hundred and eighteen, hereinbefore cited, do hereby certify that if the resolutions of the Legislatures of Ohio and New Jersey ratifying the aforesaid amendment are to be deemed as remaining of full force and effect, notwithstanding the subsequent resolutions of the Legislatures of these States which purport to withdraw the consent of said States from such ratification, then the aforesaid amendment has been ratified in the manner hereinbefore mentioned and so has become valid to all intents and purposes as a part of the Constitution of the United States.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the Department of State to be affixed.

Done at the city of Washington, this twentieth day of July in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight, and of the Independence of the United States of America the ninety-third.

Secretary of State

Rev. Henry Bushnell says the [illegible] formerly of Columbus Ohio passed up on the boat last night for Albany where he expects to supersede Rev. Wm. Monteith in the presidency of Albany College. This we believe is the only college in the State which is under the supervision of the Presbyterian Church and the only successful academic enterprise yet inaugurated in Linn county. Mr. Bushnell is well known in the State from which he comes and has a very high reputation. He no doubt will maintain it here.

The Alaska Bill

[illegible] as it passed the Senate [illegible]

Be it enacted [illegible] That the laws of the United States relating to customs, commerce and navigation be and the same are hereby extended to and over all the main land, islands and waters of the territory ceded to the United States by the Emperor of Russia by treaty concluded at Washington on the 30th day of March A D 1867, so far as the same may be applicable thereto.

Sec 2. And be it further enacted That all the said territory with its ports, harbors, bays, rivers and waters shall constitute a customs collection district to be called "The District of Alaska" for which said district a port of entry shall be established at some convenient port to be designated by the President at or near the town of Sitka or New Archangel, and a Collector of Customs shall be appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, who shall reside at said port of entry, and who shall receive an annual salary of $2 500 in addition to the usual legal fees and emoluments of such office, but his entire compensation shall not exceed $4,000 per annum, or a proportionate sum for a less period of time.

Sec 4. That the Secretary be and he is hereby authorized to make and prescribe such regulations as he may deem expedient for the nationalization of all vessels owned by actual residents of said ceded territory on and since the 20th day of June 1867, and which shall have continued to have been so owned up to the date of such nationalization.

Sec 5. That the President shall have power to restrict and regulate or to prohibit the importation or use of firearms, ammunition and distilled spirits into and within said territory and the exportation of the same from any other port or place in the United States when destined to any port or place in said territory, and all such arms, ammunition and distilled spirits exported or attempted to be exported from any port or place in the United States when destined to any port or place in said territory in violation of any regulations that may be prescribed under this section and all such arms, ammunition and distilled spirits landed or attempted to be landed or used at any port or place in said territory in violation of said regulations shall be forfeited and if the value of the same shall exceed $400 the vessel upon which the same shall be found, or from which the same have been landed together with her tackle, apparel and furniture and cargo shall be forfeited, and any person willfully violating such regulations shall on conviction be fined in any sum not exceeding $500, or imprisoned not more than six months, and bond may be required for a faithful observance of such regulations from master or owners of any vessel departing from any port in the United States having on board firearms, ammunition or distilled spirits when such vessel is destined to any place in said territory, or, if not so destined, when there shall be any reasonable ground of suspicion that such articles are intended to be landed therein in violation of law. And similar bonds may also be required, on landing of any such articles in said territory, from the person to whom the same may be consigned.

Sec 6. That the coasting trade between said territory and any other portion of the United States shall be regulated in accordance with the provisions of the law applicable to such trade between any two great districts.

Sec 7. That, until otherwise provided by law, the Secretary of the Treasury, with the approval of the President shall have power to prescribe such rules and regulations as he may deem proper for the preservation of fur bearing animals from indiscriminate destruction, provided that no special permits shall be granted under this Act.

Sec 8. That until otherwise provided by law all violations of this Act and of the several laws hereby extended to said Territory and waters thereof committed within the limits of the same shall be prosecuted in any District Court of the United States in California or Oregon or in any District Court of Washington, and Collectors or Deputy Collectors appointed by virtue of this Act, and any person authorized in writing by either of them, or by the Secretary of the Treasury, shall have power to arrest persons and seize vessels and merchandise liable to fines, penalties or forfeitures under this and said other laws and to keep and deliver over the same to the Marshal of some one of the said Courts, and said courts shall have original jurisdiction and may take cognizance of all cases arising under this Act and the several laws hereby extended over the territory so ceded to the United States by the Emperor of Russia as aforesaid and shall proceed therein in the same manner and with like effect as if such cases had arisen within the District or Territory where the proceedings shall be brought.

Sec 9. That in all cases of fine, penalty or forfeiture mentioned and embraced in the Act entitled "An Act to provide for mitigating or remitting forfeitures, penalties and disabilities accruing in certain cases therein mentioned," or mentioned in any Act in addition or amendatory of said Act that have occurred or may occur in said collection district of Alaska, the Secretary of the Treasury be and is hereby authorized, if in his opinion said fine, penalty or forfeiture was incurred without willful negligence or intention of fraud, to ascertain facts in such a manner and under such regulations as he may deem proper, without regard to the provisions of the Act [illegible] referred to, and upon said facts so to be ascertained as aforesaid, he may exercise all power of remission conferred upon him by said Act as fully as he might have [illegible] such facts been ascertained under and according to the provisions of said Act.

Sec 10. That the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe all needful rules and regulations to carry into effect all parts of this Act except those specially intrusted to the President alone, and the sum of $25 000 is hereby appropriated from any unappropriated money in the Treasury to carry this Act into effect and for the expenses of collecting the revenue from the customs within the limits of said Territory.

Murder of Union Men in Texas

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON LAWLESSNESS TO THE CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION

The Special Committee appointed by the Texas Constitutional Convention to inquire into and report upon the alleged prevalence of lawlessness and violence in that State, presented their report on the 2d inst. The committee state that although they made every possible effort to learn the facts connected with the subject they were unable to acquire a thorough knowledge of all of them. The report says:

We have found no little difficulty in getting gentlemen to testify before us. Many are unwilling and others are afraid of assassination should they do so, and hence, very few have responded to the summons of the committee. We do not therefor, offer this report as a complete exhibit of crime in Texas. We feel confident that it presents a very imperfect view of the actual violence and disorder here.

The report continues:

In our statistics we have not embraced assaults with intent to kill, rapes, robberies, whipping of freedmen, and other outrages, many of which are to be found most cruel and wanton. Such a summation would impose an almost endless task. We have directed our investigations to the homicides committed during the period of time intervening between the close of the rebellion and the 1st of June, 1868, and, from the sources of information mentioned we present the following statistics of homicides in Texas:

	Whites	Freedmen	Totals
Killed in 1865	39	38	77
Killed in 1866	70	72	141
Killed in 1867	160	166	[illegible]1
Killed in 1868	171	133	304
Year unknown	24	21	45
Of unknown race			[illegible]
Total	470	429	[illegible]

—making a grand total of 939 homicides committed in Texas since the close of the war—June, 1865, to June 1, 1868, including a few cases casually reported in the present month. This gives an average of 313 per year. Of these 939 homicides there were:

By whites, 464 whites, 373 freedmen [illegible]
By freedmen, 10 whites, 48 freedmen [illegible] 58.
And by parties whose race is unknown [illegible] 66

Now, incomplete as they are, [illegible] tell a frightful story of blood. They present stubborn facts which cannot be [illegible] passed by denials, or by denouncing [illegible] as fabricated for political effect. [illegible] attempts it is not only untruthful to [illegible], not only an apologist for crime, but may be justly charged as an [illegible] to the wickedness itself, as encouraging and [illegible] murderers, and as [illegible] guilty [illegible]. We cannot shut our eyes upon [illegible] scenes of bloodshed, and, instead of [illegible] ing to conceal [illegible] them honestly, and [illegible] to the duty of discovering the [illegible] responsibility of this [illegible] of our fellow-citizens.

In regard to [illegible] the Committee say:

"There is absolute [illegible] very few localities in T[illegible] not generally avow [illegible] In many pl[illegible] ings only when supported by [illegible] men; and in [illegible] them at all. In several [illegible] semblies have been [illegible] and their speakers [illegible] to [illegible] The dominant rebel sleep [illegible] will not [illegible] discussion. We have been [illegible] to produce cases of Union men and [illegible] persecuted for their loyalty. We [illegible] Judge Black was a Republican; he was murdered in 1867, in Uvalde county, by [illegible]. Milton Biggs was a Union man, and had been appointed County Judge of Blanco [illegible]. He was murdered in 1867 while plowing in his field, before he could qualify. Judge Christian, a loyal man of Bell County, was pursued into Missouri and [illegible] by a party of rebels. Mr. Wade and [illegible] gentlemen were killed in [illegible] last year, for their Unionism. Four [illegible] recently murdered in the county of [illegible] six in Bell county, for [illegible] the present month the County Judge [illegible] the District Clerk of Hunt county [illegible] driven from their homes and [illegible] for their lives, because of their [illegible] ment to the Government. [illegible] loyal men, to our knowledge, are at [illegible] forsaking their homes in Texas, flying [illegible] the assassin, forced away by rebel [illegible], and we here put it to record that loyal members of this convention are [illegible] from their firesides and dare not [illegible] to their families, for the only reason that they will not forswear their principles. Now, while it remains true that the Unionists of Texas constitute a very small [illegible] of the white population, and while it [illegible] they are being killed by rebels, it is [illegible] ble to escape the conclusion that they are killed for their Unionism. In other words if they were rebels they would not be killed."

Full particulars of the many outrages and assassinations which have been perpetrated are given. The report then continues as follows:

During the three months of Governor Pease's administration, aided and sustained by Generals Sheridan and Mower, and previous to the advent of General Hancock, the murders in Texas, as already seen, averaged nine per month. The number during the other months of the same year, averaged 18 per month. And confining our estimates to the records of the office of the Freedmen's Bureau, the number since the 1st of December, 1867 have averaged 31 per month. During the first month of Hancock's administration in December, there were thirty murders reported by the bureau. In other words, according to the lowest calculation, the peace administration of Generals Hancock and Buchanan has to account for twice the number of murders committed under the Sheridan-Throckmorton administration, and three times the number committed under the Sheridan-Pease administration. Moreover, fuller reports show that since the policy of Gen. Hancock was inaugurated, sustained as it is by President Johnson the homicides in Texas have averaged 55 per month, and for the last five months they have averaged 60 per month. And it is for the Commander of the Fifth Military District to answer to the public for at least two-thirds of the 330 or more homicides committed in Texas since the 1st of December 1867. Charged by law to keep the peace and lend protection to life and property, and having the army of the United States to assist him in so doing, he has failed. He has persistently refused to try criminals, rejected the prayers of the Executive of the State and the Commanding General of the District of Texas for adequate tribunals, and turned a deaf ear to the cry of tried and persecuted loyalists. And knowing whereof we affirm, and in the face of the civilized world we do solemnly lay to his charge the deaths of hundreds of the loyal citizens of Texas—a responsibility that should load his name with infamy and brand his very memory to coming years a curse and an execration.

New Name.—In noticing the probability of a new party coming into existence of which Chief Justice Chase is to be the standard bearer, the San Jose Press suggests the following euphonious agnomen:

We suggest an amendment that the new party be called the Constitutional Democratic Republican Independent White Man's Universal Suffrage State Rights Anti-Congressional [illegible] Party.

Spirit of the Rebel Democracy

We see by the mail news from the Eastern states, that most of the rebel Democratic newspapers of the South—those which advocated the cause of the rebellion and now support Seymour and Blair with the same sort of spirit—are using the more violent and revolutionary passages of Blair's letter to Colonel Brodhead as political mottoes kept standing at the heads of their editorial columns The rebels know precisely what Blair meant and they take him at his word and go into the campaign, promising each other that the election of Seymour and Blair will secure to them all they fought for and lost We think it [illegible] to the dullest apprehension that the disloyal element of the country enters into the support of Seymour and Blair with feelings and passions very similar to those with which they entered into the scheme of secession and with much the same expectations as to the [illegible] it should the Democracy succeed

We have before us a synopsis of the speech delivered by Raphael Semmes, the pirate at the Democratic ratification meeting at Mobile, Alabama, on the 13th ult It breathes the genuine rebel sentiment. He said he had been a Democrat all his life—before the war, during the war and since the war—and fought the war on the principles of Democracy The following is a quotation from the speech

> There is really but one grand issue in the contest, and that is the restoration of these states to their proper places in the Union, with all their rights and privileges unimpaired This issue will have the [illegible] to drive from our midst the hordes [illegible] who have swarmed upon us like [illegible], and eat up the substance of the people [illegible] will again reduce the negro to a subordinate position as the inferior race, and restore the white man to the government which belongs to him. When you have settled this issue it will be time enough to talk of that policy

[illegible] Toombs who was Secretary of State [illegible] the Confederacy, made a speech at Atlanta, Georgia, on the 6th ult, in which he ex[illegible] in the nomination of Seymour and re[illegible] the enthusiastic shouts with which the [illegible] had greeted the nomination, he [illegible]

> [illegible] would not have it otherwise from you, for, in [illegible] days of the [illegible] past the first voice [illegible] tyranny came out of the ashes of [illegible] any man going to accept [illegible] and his children forever? [illegible] and not lose. * * * Then [illegible] will [illegible] to the death this measure of [illegible] that compels you to admit [illegible] equality of suffrage with your [illegible] I will tell you another fact, [illegible] for this time, that as the late war [illegible] Democratic party [illegible] until it is re[illegible] Grant [illegible] peace, [illegible] [illegible] nor tyranny, [illegible] in this world or the [illegible]

[illegible] which will be re[illegible] of the most rabid of the [illegible] before the war, [illegible] supporter of the Confederacy, [illegible] Blair. In a re[illegible]

> [illegible] that the Democratic party car[illegible] the next P[illegible] and installs its [illegible] in the White House. Must they not, [illegible] to undo the wrong, and restore [illegible] If this be so [illegible]? Why is it [illegible] of the United States used [illegible] of the United States to [illegible] the ne[illegible] over the white man, is violation [illegible] if there to pre[illegible] its [illegible] back to their [illegible] of the white [illegible] of the Consti[illegible]

[illegible] with the rest [illegible] would [illegible] now in ope[illegible] proceed[illegible] of the rebel population, is [illegible] by the following [illegible]

> [illegible] it probably [illegible] In my opinion, your [illegible] in the first place is [illegible] unconstitutional [illegible] and therefore I decline to rec[illegible] application, and in the second place, [illegible] to the Constitution of the United States [illegible] by force to prevent [illegible] by the people"

[illegible] Tennessee, Banner embold[illegible] by the [illegible] of the Democratic party in favor of revolution, lately contained a [illegible] editorial article advising forcible and [illegible] resistance to the further enforcement of [illegible] laws of the State Under such advice and the encouragement tendered by the avowed policy of the Democracy, the Ku [illegible] will no doubt proceed [illegible] to the open attempt to overthrow the State government. The recent bloody outbreaks in that and adjoining States require no [illegible] They are the beginning of the bloody civil war proposed by Frank Blair and the Democratic platform.

[illegible] Times and Messenger, [illegible] of the Seymour and Blair D[illegible], in the South, says

> "The new governments cannot last long, the [illegible] is how to get rid of them * * * Of one thing only do we feel certain, that the [illegible] the Northern people tell us that they will not undo what the Radical leaders have done [illegible] the actual presence of a strong military force of the United States here will prevent re[illegible] to the government"

[illegible] General Bowie of Maryland [illegible] in Baltimore recently, in which he referred to the United States bonds in [illegible] eminently Democratic terms

> "If there be any class of men I would sooner tax, it would be these men who furnished the money to carry on the most unholy, wicked and [illegible] war in history. [Applause] I would not tax them as property, but I would because I can read upon the face of these bonds a contribution to an unholy and wicked purpose"

The spirit of hatred toward the government, which is indicated in most of the above extracts, was also displayed by rebel delegates in the Democratic National Convention Yerger, a southern delegate said

> "The South is now groaning under the most damnable despotism ever borne by man, and as for this Union of blood and plunder of oppression and tyranny—a Union headed by an usurping [illegible] called Congress—I hate it I spit upon it."

An Alabama delegate when the vote for Vice President was taken said "As a rebel soldier of Alabama, I take pleasure in casting her vote for Frank P Blair

We understand that the farmers on the lower Chehalis have generally secured their hay crops and in good condition All their crops are heavy this year and grain especially promises an abundant yield

We are informed that some parties from California passed through Olympia a few days ago and proceeded down the Sound, who were looking for a site for a large steam saw mill They proposed visiting different portions of the Sound country and will give it a thorough inspection before locating

Mr Hanaford, of Black river, had a severe old bear fight a few days ago Having shot a black bear out of a tree and not killing it dead his dog attacked it The dog was soon getting the worst of the fight, when Mr Hanaford, throwing down his rifle, went to his rescue with his hunting knife The bear immediately turned upon him and grabbing Mr H's wrist in his mouth bit him severely, not letting go until nearly cut to pieces when it rolled over stone dead

FROM VICTORIA

By the steamer Geo S Wright we have Victoria papers to the 8th, from which we clip the following items

News were received in town yesterday morning of a serious accident to the Lillie Horner a small boat belonging to the Telegraph Company On her way from San Juan to Victoria on Thursday afternoon her boiler burst, when she drifted on Discovery Island The Superintendent was allowed the use of the Leviathan to bring her into port Fortunately no injury was done by the explosion to the boat, or to any one on board

The following are the shipments of gold from this Colony, through Wells, Fargo & Co on account of the Banks and themselves from the 1st of January to the 31st of July last Bank of British Columbia $577 179 Bank of British North America, $255 626, Wells Fargo & Co $96 248 making a total of $920 613 a sum far in advance of the amount shipped in the corresponding period of last year

The Independent Order of Good Templars is quietly progressing in this city without making any ostentatious display They have fitted up a very neat hall in Fardon's building Langley street, at a cost of over $200 which was dedicated on last Wednesday evening by District Deputy Whitworth, of Seattle The Order was first established here in September 1866 beginning with some ten or twelve members and now number sixty in good standing in this city, besides others residing in the interior

Ladies—If you are afflicted with lassitude; if on rising in the morning you feel unrefreshed with a bad taste in the mouth, a disgust for food, a constant desire to rest, it is time [illegible] thing should be done to stop the growing evil We know of no preparation more highly adapted to all afflictions of this description than

HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS

For Mothers nursing this great tonic should always be taken especially where the mother's nourishment is inadequate to the demands of the child, or [illegible] her strength must yield and here it is where a good tonic such as HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS is needed to impart temporary

STRENGTH AND VIGOR

to the whole system Ladies should by all means try this [illegible] and before so doing, ask your physician who if he is acquainted with its virtues, will recommend its use in all cases. As a

MEDICAL AGENT

it has no equal, while its pleasing flavor and healthful effects have made it a general favorite. It is free from all properties calculated to impair the system and its operations are at once mild, soothing and efficient All who have used the Bitters

ATTEST ITS VIRTUES

Sewing Machines at the Paris Exposition.—There seems to be considerable contradiction among the successful exhibitors as to the awards made in this department The recipients of the two gold medals severally advertise that theirs is the only gold medal thus contradicting each other while all the other prize holders concur that no gold medal was awarded to any Sewing Machine whatever Happily it is not our duty to decide this knotty question but be as it may the Grover and Baker Sewing Machine have received the very highest prize—above all medals—their representative in Paris having been decorated by the Emperor with the Cross of the Legion of Honor

We find the above in one of our English exchanges and transfer it to our columns with satisfaction. It is gratifying to find that the Grover & Baker Machine which stands so high at home should also receive the highest honor abroad When it is remembered that one thousand Gold Medals were awarded at the Exposition and only one hundred and fifty decorations it will be seen that the Cross of the Legion of Honor was considered by the judges as a much higher award of merit than the Gold Medal No other Sewing Machine at the Exposition received this distinction showing that in the opinion of His Imperial Majesty and the judges no other was [illegible] deserving This award places the Grover & Baker Machine first in order in the official statement of the Exposition as it is first in the estimation of the public on both sides of the Atlantic CURRIER & Co are Agents for these Machines No 103 Front st

Sweet [illegible] dear [illegible] here at rest
Though 'tis hard from thee to part
We feel an aching in our breast
A depressing pain at heart
Rest thou sweet child in Jesus;
Thy sad mother too shall come,
By grace I soon shall meet you
In Heaven that happy home
Rest thou in Jesus

An Unusual Order.—The two County Commissioners and the County Judge sitting as Commissioners Court on last Monday made an order in substance and purport about as follows That for the purpose of being more fully advised on the law governing the bills and other expenses connected with the administration of justice which are or may be presented to the County Court for payment that the cost bills and other claims of a like character now filed for allowance be and they are hereby referred to John Catlin Esq for his opinion thereon in writing and in reference to the statute governing in such matters

From this order Judge Marquam dissents because being fully advised on the law governing such business and it being business properly before the Court he deems it the duty of the Court to proceed with the transaction thereof —and of hiring persons at the expense of the county to perform the duties for which they were elected

That spirit which indulges the Honorable County Commissioners to invest gate closely all claims presented to them for payment is highly commendable, but what can be the force of such an order is somewhat beyond our [illegible] While we have all respect for the legal opinion of Mr Catlin we cannot conceive what effect it will have in the matter of claims against the county and it certainly seems to us that the above order if carried out, will result in simply nothing whatever, and that it is purely extra judicial and a step beyond the law as enacted by the Legislature. Judge Marquam, in the opinion by him dissenting states the matter clearly and succinctly If any officer connected with the administration of justice, overcharges the county the way to punish such acts is clearly pointed out by statute, but the opinion of any attorney disposed to furnish his views of the law would certainly be entitled to just as much weight as another It is the first time we ever heard of such a [illegible] and we would be glad to have a precedent pointed out, if there is such

County Poor.—We see by reference to the proceedings of the County Commissioners' Court, at the present session of the Board that Drs Hawthorne & Loryea have received the contract for keeping the paupers at the rate of $8 per week, during the pleasure of the Commissioners While it may be true that this is the least that private individuals could be [illegible] to undertake it for we believe that by proper [illegible] these unfortunate persons could be as well cared for at much less expense to the county Some time ago the county purchased a Poor Farm at an expense of about $4,000, and improvements and repairs have since been made upon it at or [illegible] his cost all of which it seems to us, is money unnecessarily expended unless the original plan of placing the poor upon the farm and caring for them there is carried out. Doubtless this can be done soon and we [illegible] the Board of Commissioners will see that there be no [illegible] delay in thus reducing the expense of providing for the paupers of the county The sum paid [illegible] the present arrangement certainly is a large one and [illegible] more than it would cost to keep them upon the farm.

[illegible]—Several citizens of Portland are sojourning [illegible] at Victoria, some of them with their families, and from the Colonist we learn that they are well [illegible] with the climate and the country In speaking [illegible] now in that place, the Colonist says

[illegible] of the gentlemen [illegible] with the natural shrewdness of their [illegible] are looking round into matters financial [illegible] So satisfied are they of the future [illegible] that [illegible] are already contemplating investing [illegible] Our position [illegible] coal lumber and [illegible] of the interior, have so impressed them [illegible] at a glance the change which must rapidly [illegible] every man who has had any practical ex[illegible] on the Pacific coast see the same thing At all [illegible] and neighbors will return to their [illegible] good news of we abroad, which of [illegible]

[illegible] that any of our people now over there are [illegible] extensively in Victoria, we congratulate [illegible] of that place and at the same time re[illegible] of Portland, to them do not seem [illegible] or even better

[illegible]—We regret to learn that the meeting [illegible] for the purpose of devising [illegible] in aid of an orphan asylum in our State [illegible] of the congregations of [illegible] not represented at all However, there [illegible] and appointed a committee [illegible] and a set of by laws Also a [illegible] means of raising funds for [illegible] There [illegible] are expected to [illegible] which will be held one week [illegible] that the efforts [illegible] will be liberal [illegible] of Portland.

[illegible]—From the Umatilla Press we [illegible] the two horses taken by [illegible] the robbery was committed [illegible] that the affair was [illegible] of the com[illegible] in the [illegible], but we failed [illegible] We [illegible] taken, while it [illegible] by indi[illegible] Various rumors are afloat [illegible] giving any [illegible] this affair, and we [illegible]

[illegible]—The dwelling in the rear of Northrup & [illegible] store, was put on rollers a few days ago and is [illegible] up Front street giving place to a more [illegible] building to be used for mercantile purposes

[illegible] Base Ball Club.—There will be a meeting [illegible] at the base ball grounds, East Portland this [illegible] o'clock, and [illegible] meeting at [illegible] Gallery, in the evening

Low Water.—The Willamette river at this place is getting quite low and above the falls is said to be con[illegible] lower than usual at this season of the year

Favors.—We are under obligations to the purser of the [illegible] Geo S. Wright for late files of Victoria papers

The Republicans held a large meeting at the Fifth Street Market in St Louis, Saturday night to ratify the national and State nominations and platforms Colonel [illegible] of northwestern Missouri Judge Forrest lately of Ohio [illegible] Charles P Johnson and Colonel [illegible] of St Louis, were among the speakers A deliberate attempt was made by a large number of unruly men to stop the speaking and break up the meeting, but it failed. Reference [illegible] the impartial suffrage resolution in the State platform was received with cheers, and a very decided determination was expressed to carry it through

How often do you hear it [illegible] from mother and father that their son or daughter is not well that they have no appetite that they feel languid that their head aches that they are growing thin and feeble and that they have no life or energy left That they are low spirited and perfectly incapacitated [illegible] pleasures or performing mental or physical duty. HOSTETTER'S
CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS!
A Pure and Powerful Tonic,
Corrective and Alterative, of wonderful efficacy in Diseases of the STOMACH, LIVER AND BOWELS.

PROTECTIVE PROPERTIES.

Prevents Fever and Ague and Bilious [illegible] Fortifies the System [illegible] the evil [illegible] the organs of digestion and the bowels.
Steadies the Nerves and tends to Prolong Life.

REMEDIAL PROPERTIES.

Cures Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Sick and Nervous Headache, General Debility, Nervousness, Depression of Spirits, Constipation, Colic, Intermittent Fevers, Sea Sick[ness] [illegible] and Spasms and all [illegible] of either sex arising from Bodily Weakness [illegible] in the system or PRODUCED BY SPECIAL CAUSES.

NOTHING THAT IS NOT WHOLESOME, GENIAL, and restorative in its nature, enters into the composition of HOSTETTER S STOMACH BITTERS This popular preparation contains no mineral of any kind; no deadly botanical element no fiery excitant, but is a combination of the extracts of rare balsamic herbs and plants with the purest and mildest of all diffusive stimulants.

The weak [illegible] is rapidly invigorated, and the appetite restored by this Tonic, and hence it works [illegible] in cases of Dyspepsia and in less confirmed forms of Indigestion Acting as a gentle and painless aperient as well as upon the liver it also invariably relieves the Constipation superinduced by irregular action of the digestive and secretive organs.

Persons of feeble habit liable to Nervous Attacks, Lowness of Spirits and Fits of Languor, find prompt and permanent relief from the Bitters The [illegible] on this point is conclusive, and from both sexes.

As a Genuine Tonic, HOSTETTER'S BITTERS [illegible] effects which must be experienced [illegible] before they can be fully appreciated [illegible] Weak [illegible] Debility, and [illegible] tude arising from old age, it exerts [illegible] influence In the convalescent stages of all [illegible] it operates as a delightful invigorant. When the [illegible] of nature are relaxed, it operates to re[illegible] and re[illegible]lish them

Last, but not least, it is the only safe [illegible] being manufactured from sound and [illegible] and entirely free from the acrid [illegible] or less in all the ordinary [illegible] of the day.

Daniel Gray

If I shall ever win the home in heaven
For whose sweet rest I humbly hope and pray
In the great company of the forgiven
I shall be sure to find old Daniel Gray

I knew him well in fact few knew him better
For my young eyes oft read for him the Word,
And saw how meekly from the crystal letter
He drank the life of his beloved Lord

Old Daniel Gray was not a man who lifted
On ready wings his freight of gratitude
And was not called upon among the gifted
In the prayer meetings of his neighborhood

He had a few old fashioned words and phrases
Linked in with sacred texts and Sunday rhymes,
And I suppose, that in his prayers and graces
I've heard them all at least a thousand times

I see him now—his form and face, and motions
His homespun habit and his silver hair—
And hear the language of his trite devotions
Rising behind the straight backed kitchen-chair

I can remember how the sentence sounded—
"Help us, O Lord to pray and not to faint"
And how the "conquering and to conquer" rounded
The loftier aspirations of the saint

He had some notions that did not improve him—
He never kissed his children—so they say
And finest scenes and fairest flowers would move him
Less than a horse shoe picked up in the way

He had a hearty hatred of oppression,
And righteous words for sin of every kind
Alas, that the transgressor and transgression
Were linked so closely in his honest mind!

He could see naught but vanity in beauty
And naught but weakness in a fond caress
And pitied men whose views of Christian duty
Allowed indulgence in such foolishness

Yet there were love and tenderness within him
And I am told, that, when his Charley died
Nor nature's need nor gentle words could win him
From his fond vigils at the sleeper's side.

And when they came to bury little Charley,
They found fresh dew-drops sprinkled in his hair
And on his breast a rose bud gathered early,
And guessed, but did not know, who placed it there

Honest and faithful, constant in his calling,
Strictly attendant on the means of grace,
Instant in prayer, and fearful most of falling,
Old Daniel Gray was always in his place.

A practical old man, and yet a dreamer
He thought that in some strange, unlooked for way,
His mighty Friend in Heaven, the great Redeemer,
Would honor him with wealth some golden day

This dream he carried in a hopeful spirit
Until in death his patient eye grew dim,
And his Redeemer called him to inherit
The heaven of wealth long garnered up for him.

So, if I ever win the home in Heaven
For whose sweet rest I humbly hope and pray,
In the great Company of the forgiven
I shall be sure to find old Daniel Gray

—J. G. Holland.

The Saviours of the Republic.

[From Harper's Weekly.]

The chief Democratic paper of the city of New York, on the morning of the Fourth of July, published a biographical list of the delegates to the Democratic Convention. It headed the article in large letters: "The men upon whom the Republic relief for Salvation" "Their Record of Service to the Nation" "How the Republic's Friends will Celebrate the Republic's Natal Day."

Naturally curious to see who were the patriots upon whom the safety of the Republic rests we begin the list. Alabama was the first State [illegible]. Of the four delegates at large, one was a rebel General and another a rebel Colonel. Of the twelve district delegates, five were rebel soldiers and one was in the rebel Congress. The next Southern State mentioned was North Carolina. Of the four delegates at large, two were rebel Generals and one was in Congress. Of the ten district delegates named, five were rebel officers and one was in the civil service. At the head of the South Carolina [illegible] only other Southern State [illegible] Hampton, described [illegible] ing man in South [illegible] ly than any other [illegible] Calhoun in the heart [illegible] of others as [illegible] of the Union, whose [illegible] tly expressed by [illegible] Lee's Washington [illegible] the cause for which [illegible] could not be a lost [illegible], that is to [illegible] be accomplished.

T[illegible] whom the Republic rel[illegible] for salvation.

"Their record of service to the nation" [illegible] shot at the unstained Star of the West to the surrender of Lee to Grant and [illegible] of Jefferson Davis in [illegible]; and is illustrated by Quantrell's Lawrence massacre, by the Andersonville and Salisbury pens, by the [illegible] of President Lincoln, by the [illegible] of hundreds of thousands of [illegible] men fighting for the Union, and by a debt of twenty-five hundred millions of dollars.

[illegible] years ago these "friends of the Republic" [illegible] the day by striking at its heart [illegible] and [illegible]. This year they [illegible] by striking some other means of [illegible] the cause that was then—thanks [illegible] and [illegible] of loyal men [illegible]

Let no one say that it is [illegible] of fact and of policy to regard [illegible] men as rebels, [illegible] never be [illegible] if we are always [illegible]. We do not de[illegible]. They [illegible] the lost cause [illegible] those who [illegible] who [illegible] to say so. If [illegible] is the [illegible] loyal people of the United States, [illegible] and his colleagues [illegible]

F[illegible] Balloon Ascension in Missouri.—A young beginner in the art of aeronautics [illegible] losing his life in his upward, or rather downward career, on the Fourth, at M[illegible] County, Mo. While a black man [illegible] engaged in generating gas, some portion of the oil was spilled or thrown upon the side of the lower part of the machinery, below the seat of the young "aspirant," and at the moment of starting the basket swung over the blaze and took fire. The balloon, a large one, went up with great rapidity, and was at a great height when the candidate for high honors discovered his danger. As quickly as possible, he pulled the ropes to let out the gas, and [illegible] came at a rate that would have killed him beyond peradventure but for the fortunate circumstance of his dropping into the top of a very large tree. The poor man nearly enveloped in the flames, and badly scratched [illegible] by the branches of the tree, came to the ground like the sportsman's wounded squirrel, "not dead, but kicking." The balloon continued to burn in the top of the oak until consumed. Such a perilous ascent and [illegible] was never seen before.

What are They Fighting For?—The removal by Congress of all the objections to radical misrule, of which the Democracy have [illegible], leaves no [illegible] question, for [illegible] the D[illegible] is fighting? Congress [illegible] Freedmen's Bureau, and [illegible] don't like that. Congress has [illegible] into the Union the reconstructed [illegible] Democrats don't like that, Congress [illegible] the military from Southern States, and D[illegible] don't like that; Congress has reduced the army, and Democrats don't like that; [illegible] has succeeded in cutting down the [illegible] revenue officers, and Democrats don't like [illegible]; has reduced taxation, and D[illegible] don't like that. Yet a little while since these very points were what to them constituted "radical misrule." Now these objections being removed, the question naturally arises, for what are Democrats fighting? In reply there comes up a whisper "Office! Plunder!"—Sacramento Record.

A Gallant Foe.—The Marysville Appeal says: The Democratic platform declare, the traitors who inaugurated the rebellion, and trailed the Stars and Stripes in the dust, "a gallant foe!" The men who imprisoned and murdered tens of thousands in Anderson, "a gallant foe." The assassins of Fort Pillow, "a gallant foe." The pirate Semmes, who sailed the ocean burning our merchantmen, "a gallant foe!" We are at a loss to understand how rebels can become "gallant foes." Because they fought bravely say the Copperheads. Well, the highwaymen fights bravely, and is he entitled to the encomium of a "gallant foe?" This plank in the Democratic platform has lost a splinter or two. There something missing. It is incomplete. It is intended to flatter the rebels and satisfy them that the Democracy is still true to the rebel cause. It is intended to be understood as follows. The rebels were a gallant foe, and ought to have gained the victory.

Gen John L. Swift, a Massachusetts politician, went to New York to get Chase nominated. He has since come out in a speech for Grant.

Our Army.—The following is the statement of Secretary Schofield of the estimated diminution of the army. It will be seen that in one year the total strength of the army will be only 17,[illegible] men. It is now about 30,000 it is said.

Cavalry, to January 1st, 1869, 4,11[illegible], to July 1st, 1869, [illegible]6,617

Artillery, to January 1st, 1,837, to July 1st, 1,208

Infantry, to January 1st, 12,0[illegible], to July 1st, 21,002.

Should no further enlistments be made the number of enlisted men of the three arms in service will be on the dates aforesaid, as follows:

Cavalry to Jan. 1st, 1869, 5,458, July 1st 3,224

Artillery, January 1st, 4,581, July 1st, 11,725.

Grant and the Methodists.—The following account of a conversation between General Grant and Governor Curtin is in circulation:

"Why do you like the Methodists, General?" finally asked Curtin.

"Because their religion is one of hard knocks. They take hold of a man and never let him drop until they have either converted him or scared him so that he will say his prayers some time in his life and thus be saved," said Grant with a smile. "Then, too, it is an American religion. The Methodists are entirely Democratic."

Julesburg, a town on the line of the Pacific Railroad, which a [illegible] ago contained several thousand inhabitants, and building lots were worth from $2,000 to $5,000, is now deserted and the ground on which the town stands can be bought for 75 cents an acre, and if you grow [illegible], a house or two will be thrown in.

A [illegible], a gentleman going out of his house, [illegible] over a dog in the entry, fell and broke his [illegible], then attempted to kick the dog, but missed him, kicked over a hat stand, put his ankle out of joint, and was laid up three months.

Some one has re-called the pat verse in the "New Gosple of Peace": "And now of the Pahdees he was called Saymour, because he could baymour and mane less than any other man livin'."

A Man who lived near the bank of the Mississippi, in Illinois, having shot some wild ducks went out in a leaky skiff to secure them, and the skiff sinking, the man was drowned, while his agonized family stood on the shore and witnessed his struggle for life.

June bugs are so numerous and destructive in France, that the Government has offered ten cents a pound for them, and some of the peasantry are making the catching of them a profitable business.

"There, John, that's the [illegible] you've come home and forgotten that lard."

"La, mother, it was so greasy that it slipped my memory."

DR. HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS.

Although the fame of this renowned invigorant rests mainly on its astonishing cures of Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, and Intestinal disorders, it is equally efficacious in nervous complaints. Thousands of ladies resort to it as a remedy for hysteria, fluttering of the heart, nervous headache, vertigo, general debility and all peculiar distresses and derangements to which, as a sex, they are subject. It cheers and lightens the depressed mental powers as well as strengthens the body, and its use is never followed by any unpleasant reaction. Sold by all Druggists and dealers everywhere.

NEW REMEDIES, NEW REMEDIES

Dr. Gibbon's Dispensary,

616 KEARNEY STREET NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco. Established in 1854, for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhea, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc. [illegible] successfully treated.

Horrible Diseases.

How many [illegible] both male and female, [illegible] from the effects of a virus absorbed into the system [illegible] their pallid emaciated and haggard faces and their broken-down constitutions, disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life. [illegible] situation then and suffer until death closes the scene. Let parents, guardians, friends [illegible] those who are suffering with any of these horrible [illegible] maladies—see that they are [illegible] Send them immediately to Dr. Gibbon, a physician who has made private diseases his especial study for [illegible] years and who [illegible] without mercury or any injurious drugs. It is important to those who are afflicted [illegible] to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities [illegible] their skill in curing all diseases in a few days, imposing upon the public [illegible] physicians from Europe [illegible] or you may fall into the hands of those charlatans.

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions, the consequence of self abuse. This solitary vice [illegible] is practised by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing with unerring certainty the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combatted by scientific medical measures, viz: Sallow countenance, dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, uneasiness about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, blunted intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances, a disposition to shun society, loss of memory, hectic flushes, pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue, fetid breath, coughs, consumption, night sweats, monomania and frequent insanity. If relief be not obtained [illegible] either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease, which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr. G. will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks.

MARRIED MEN,

Or those who contemplate marriage who are suffering under any of these fearful maladies should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them nor delay to obtain immediate relief.

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible, and will give to each patient a written instrument binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure or make no charge.

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME, by addressing a letter to Dr. Gibbon, stating case, symptoms, length of time the disease has continued, and have medicines promptly forwarded, free from damage and curiosity, to any part of the country, with full and plain directions for use, for Ten Dollars, sent in registered letter or through Wells Fargo & Co.

Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and pretenders, who with bogus sworn to certificates dupe the unwary. Some of the self styled doctors whose names are to be found in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco and their places are tin shops and license too lazy to work at the trades. Some are [illegible] makers, newspaper carriers, intelligence office keepers, etc. Look over the San Francisco Directory, and you will not find their Medical Institutes in it, but you will find their former occupation in it. Look at the Directory for 1862 and 1863. The only way to avoid imposition is to make enquiry—it will cost you nothing and may save you many regrets, for, as advertising physicians, in eight cases out of ten, are bogus, there is no safety in trusting any of them until you know who and what they are. Dr. Gibbon does not deceive people by exhibiting bogus certificates, pretended patient's letters etc. Dr. Gibbon will satisfy persons who may call at his office of his ability to treat diseases that he proposes to cure.

Address DR. J. F. GIBBON, 616 Kearney street, corner Commercial, San Francisco. Post Office Box 252.

REMEMBER TO PUT BOX 252 ON THE LETTER.

Consultations FREE.

Correspondents will please inform DR. GIBBON that they read his advertisement in the Daily Oregonian.

READ THE FOLLOWING:

PORTLAND, OREGON, July 14, 1868.

P. D. Moore, Esq., Sir—

The undersigned having witnessed the exhibition in this city yesterday of your "Extinguisher," or Portable Self Acting Fire Engine, would state that the first experiment of a fire kindled outside of the building erected in the rear of the Central Public School House, made by using shavings, staves, tar, &c., was effectually extinguished with one machine in a short time: that the second experiment of a fire in the inside of the building, made by using shavings, kerosene, staves and dry stuff, was also promptly extinguished by the use of one machine in less than three minutes. The third experiment was left to the control of the Fire Department, under the direction of the Chief Engineer, and the building was fired inside and outside, and when the fire was well under way the Chief Engineer gave the order to "[illegible]," and the fire was effectually put out in about six minutes. A brisk breeze was blowing at the time and we pronounce the experiment successful and satisfactory. We are satisfied that the "EXTINGUISHER" is very valuable for what it claims, namely the prompt extinguishment of fires in their earlier stages, and being portable, self acting and always ready at a moment's notice, would, if generally introduced, save much valuable property from destruction, and we regard it as a valuable auxiliary to the Fire Department. They are indispensable in those localities where no steam or other fire engine is in use, and we recommend their use generally in dwellings, stores, hotels, and public buildings.

Very respectfully,
W. H. WEED,
Chief Engineer Portland Fire Department.

ON BOARD THE ALASKA, Portland, July 13, 1868.

P. D. Moore, Esq.—Sir: I have just returned from witnessing the operation of your "Extinguisher," or Portable Self Acting Fire Engine, and can feel I was both surprised and highly pleased with its success.

I have no doubt whatever of its efficiency and adaptation to putting out fires in their earlier stages, however inflammable the materials may be that are burning. Its [illegible] a flame is really magical. They should be in every house of any value, or which contains valuable property as well as on board of vessels. No one can estimate the additional security they give to both life and property. You will please furnish me two of the No. [illegible] for the Alaska, as I sail for Honolulu to-morrow morning. Very respectfully,
E. CALHOUN,
Master of schooner "Alaska."

The above rules, estab[illegible] by Dr. J. C. Young in 18[illegible] and which have done so [illegible] to secure the reputation of [illegible] Institute, are still adhe[illegible] affording those in nee[illegible] medical aid, the certain[illegible] cure and the utmost confi[illegible]

There is nothing of so [illegible] importance to the sick [illegible] know where to find a ph[illegible]cian whose skill and hum[illegible] give assurance of proper [illegible] delicate treatment. The [illegible]tor would respectfully [illegible] attention of those of both [illegible] who are suffering or in [illegible] to the invariable success [illegible] has marked the career of [illegible] Institute in the seventeen [illegible] of its existence.

It is unnecessary in this [illegible] nection to enumerate all [illegible] complaints treated at the [illegible]stitute, but the Doctor feels [illegible] his duty to call especial a[illegible] tion to that terrible scourge, SEMINAL WEAKNESS, That is sapping with its [illegible]sidiousness the very life of [illegible] victims; in the treatment [illegible] cure of which the Institute [illegible] earned so enviable a rep[illegible]tion.
